ABOUT THE HONORING CEREMONY

The Honoring Ceremony is a musical reminder of original innocence and a practice of accepting who we are now. In the Ceremony, a state of fulfillment is evoked, an invitation for participants to compassionately embrace their own challenges and needs, as well as those around them— and to be present to songs born in response to each request.

Ceremonies occur in homes, churches, community centers, concert halls, conferences— even over the telephone. Participants ask for and receive a song from Michael, created in the moment, with music and lyrics responding to their specific request. As one individual's request echoes themes or concerns shared by others, the result is a deeper connection between all participants. Requested themes may include:

Healing on any level (physical, mental, emotional, spiritual)

Empowerment (courage in facing a challenge; clarity in decisions)

Support in Relationship (releasing a relationship, calling forth a new relationship, celebrating a present relationship)

Intention for Awakening (enlightenment, being of service to a Greater Good; reclaiming oneself; surrendering one's ego to God)

Theme of Sustainability (community awareness, world peace, etc.)

The Honoring album features songs selected from Honoring Ceremonies throughout America and Europe, mostly in Spring of 2008.

Ceremony participants are invited to consider every request as already fulfilled in themselves. If, for example, one person asks for 'healing of the heart', participants are invited to focus on their own heart as healed.

Or if 'a better relationship with their child' is requested, participants are invited to imagine living in healthy relationship with their own loved ones.

In addition to this practice of fulfillment, participants are invited to add their voice to the chorus of songs as they emerge, thereby participating in the music itself.

Songs created within the Ceremony are recorded and distributed to participants, reinforcing the experience of the event whenever the songs are listened to.

RESPONSES FROM CEREMONY PARTICIPANTS

Deep inside I wished with all my heart that the pain between my former partner and I resolve. Now when I listen to the song I feel the ice slowly melting. The 'medicine' of the music expanded from one to many. It helps with all the painful partnerships, even with my father.

-Dora, Song-Recipient (Flowers Between Us), Winterthur, Switzerland

The Honoring Ceremony created a level of connection for us that went far beyond what we could create in dialogue or shared action. As we witnessed one another's deepest intentions be brought forth into song, we experienced a sense of wholeness that truly honored the work we are here to do together. I recommend this experience to any organization or community group that wishes to create a profound sense of possibilities for its work in the world.

-Deborah Frieze, Co-President, Berkana Institute, TeleSong Ceremony Host

The music that you created went deeper than words. Witnessing each other's intentions and songs gave us a special window into each others' hearts, allowing us to see ourselves and each other more clearly— and allowed us to see ourselves in each other. I truly enjoyed this experience and admired the way you hosted us - creating a space for us to be fully present to ourselves and each other.

-Lauren, Song-Recipient, Boston, MA

It's great to have an ongoing reminder of the space we created –and to take that spirit of acceptance and trust wherever we go.

-Claire & Mark, Song-Recipients, London

I understand now, from having witnessed the Ceremony, what you mean by 'calling forth the Great Song to work through you', a practice which takes great courage and faith.

-Laura, Ceremony Host, Santa Barbara, CA

Your music has been a bridge for me over some troubled waters.

-Elisa, Song-Recipient, San Diego, CA

I experienced being spoken to through the music at a direct and deeply emotional level. The words and music became an incredible vehicle through which I was able to realize my own depth and power.

-Aerin, Song-Recipient, Boston, MA

It was really a healing experience for me and I came back home with a new, joyful, refreshed energy. I'm so grateful that I found you and your music!

-Anita, TeleSong Ceremony Host, Germany

SONGWRITING WITHOUT BORDERS

For 30 years Michael Stillwater has practiced the contemplative art of intuitive song composing, the essence of The Honoring Ceremony.

Traditionally, songwriting is a solitary or collaborative creative act in which the songwriter(s) approach a musical concept from a thematic, melodic, rhythmic, or lyrical entry point— in privacy.

To share this act of creation in public, composing and performing songs in-the-moment, spontaneous and unrehearsed, implicitly trusting the lyrics, melody and guitar accompaniment as each song is created, is a more vulnerable and therefore less often witnessed artistic approach.

Founder of Song Without Borders and Inner Harmony, Michael Stillwater is a musical intuitive, speaker, educator, retreat leader and recording artist of healing music and contemporary chant. He lives in Zurich, Switzerland with his wife, contemplative psychotherapist Doris Laesser Stillwater, and tours internationally.

The CD/giftbook of spoken word and music, Graceful Passages: A Companion for Living & Dying (New World Library), along with the health practitioner audio and educational program, Care for the Journey (Companion Arts), produced by Michael Stillwater with Emmy Award-winning composer Gary Malkin, were inspired by the application of intuitive music within hospice and healthcare.

Harmony Vocal: Holly Croydon

Time: 7:00

Original intuitive song created and recorded during Honoring Ceremony in Zurich, 2008.

Song Recipient: Dora

Song Request: Healing between former marriage partners and co-parents.

*There are flowers that are growing
In the space between our hearts
There are flowers that are growing
In the space between our hearts
There is sunlight, there is sunlight shining
There is sunlight, there is sunlight shining
And my love it flows on through
And I can see you
Shining in the light of who you are to me*

*I see flowers as they're growing
As they're growing in our heart
Beautiful flowers in the shower
Of the love that is falling upon every part
And now I know the blessing
Is all that's remaining between us
There's a blessing that's remaining between us
And I am grateful for the love*

FLOWERS BETWEEN US (continued)

*For the love that we've shared
I'm grateful for the endless love
That never went anywhere*

*Like an underground river
That flows between us still
O this world it spins, and everything changes
But something it remains, yes something it remains
And the blessing is ever here
And all that remains is a blessing
All that remains is a blessing*

*And when I look in your eyes I feel it
When I look in your heart I know
When I look in the skies above us
I can see the sun and I can feel the glow
Of the love that lights our way
As the flowers, the flowers they grow (repeat)
The flowers they grow, they're growing between us
The flowers they grow, they're growing inside us
The flowers they grow, flowing and growing
The flowers they grow.*

From this father's love, O it loves so much
O a father's love, O it's loving touch*

*And it knows what needs to be today

*How can you know how far it will travel?
How can you know how far its gonna go?

It knows so well, yes a father's love*

*O a father's love, it'll walk right through the gates of hell
Yes a father's love,
O a father's love, it'll bring you to the well

Percussion: Willy Kouton

Bass: Wolfgang Zwiauer

Time: 4:34

Intuitive song from Honoring Ceremony at Palliative Care Conference,
Prince Albert, Saskatchewan, Canada, 2008

*I've got what I need when I need it, I can feel it flow
There's a seed that's inside of me
It continues to grow
And I feel the strength of life inside of me
And the courage to walk my word
The light of life it's shining
And I can feel that I'm heart
As I speak out this word of strength and encouragement
May it echo throughout this world
To all who join me in caring
To all who join me right now
O there is a strength beyond the words I speak
There is a power beyond
And it's feeding us from the inside
Carrying us further on
It lifts us now into the place that we know we can be
It lifts us up and we know that we're free
In this strength and courage that lights up our lives
When we feel tired it lifts us in day or night
Strength inside of me and you
I let this strength pour through me now
Strength inside of me and you
Let this strength pour through me now*

*I am renewed in this moment and I share with you
Nothing else that I really need to do
But take a moment to remember true
How much love is flowing through my life (repeat)*

*When I look upon you I remember, when I look upon you I recall
The strength I was seeking is right here meeting me, right here now
I can feel it now, it's right here meeting me
I am renewed (repeat)*

IN THE SILENCE

Original Vocal and Guitar: Michael Stillwater

Harmony Vocal: Michael Stillwater

Cello: Daniel Pezzotti

Time: 5:36

Intuitive song recorded in Honoring Ceremony at Palliative Care
Conference, Prince Albert, Saskatchewan, Canada, 2008

*There's a contentment all around me
As I look out from here
A perfect silence in the very midst
Of everything here*

*And I feel the stillness in my presence
And I feel the stillness in my soul
And I feel the stillness in the essence
It reminds me that I am whole*

*And everything that I wished for
Is here as I sit right now
In the deep silence I remember
That all that I wished for is right now
In the silence of this moment
In the silence here in everything
In the silence here in this moment
I can hear the angels sing*

*In the silence I see you and you are happy
In the silence I know I'm not alone
In the silence I feel that all is well
And I am ever at home in the silence
In the silence right where I am
In the silence, in the silence
Now I understand
That even in the haste and the noise of life
There are so many joys*

IN THE SILENCE (continued)

*If I simply take the time to feel it
I know it is my choice to live
Here in the midst of everything
In sweet silence
And this way I can listen to you
I can hear your voice
As it speaks in my heart
And I know this much is true
That love dwells here in the silence
Love dwells here with me in the silence
Love dwells here with me.*

Original Vocal and Guitar: Michael Stillwater

Harmony Vocal: Michael

Time: 4:09

Intuitive song from Honoring Ceremony in Sussex, UK, 2008

Song Request: balance in stewarding personal and shared resources

*I can trust it, I can trust it now
I've got what I need and I know how to share it now
I can trust it, I can trust it now
I can share what I am, what I have
I can trust that I am here
Knowing that all is set, all is set and fine
Knowing that I can share with you from what, from what is mine
I can know the peace inside me, the peace inside me
And I can share with you
That there is time and there is space
To do whatever I need to do
Yes, there is time and there is space
To do what I need to*

*And there is silent time for me
To breathe in this healing air
And open up my eyes to see
The beauty precious and rare
And all I ask for it is given
And all I need is received
And all my tasks are completed
For deep in me I believe
The Grace is holding me, enfolding me, guiding me
Holding me, enfolding me, guiding me forever.*
